

Blog

 Summary

Listed by:

Date

December 2009

November 2009

October 2009

September 2009

August 2009

July 2009

June 2009

May 2009

April 2009

March 2009

February 2009

January 2009

December 2008

November 2008

October 2008

September 2008

August 2008

July 2008

June 2008

May 2008

April 2008

March 2008

February 2008

January 2008

December 2007

November 2007

October 2007

September 2007

June 02

Hypocrisy Strikes Again

I was watching the city council meeting last night and my stomach turned as I heard the utter hypocrisy coming from Councilman Wade Flemming's mouth. It was during the postponed public hearing for the proposed rezoning from B-1 to B-3 for the Harlan Shopping Plaza.

Wade Flemming supported the rezoning request and he was using the logic that because both city management and the Planning Commission supported the rezoning request, the city council should follow suit and rezone the property. Why, and here is where the utter hypocrisy occurs, do we have city management and an advisory board, the Planning Commission, providing us with their profession opinion if we (the city council) don't follow it.

Hmmmm. Wasn't it just a few years ago that City Management, the City Attorney and the Liquor Advisory Committee all recommended that the transfer of the liquor license for Hooter's be approved. Now, did Wade Flemming act upon those recommendations in the same manner he was exposing upon last night. No way Jose! Wade strongly, yes strongly, opposed the transfer. Hypocrisy once again raises its' ugly head. Wade. Practice what you preach or just zip it. Don't give reasons for supporting your position that you yourself don't follow.

Is Wade the only hypocritical council member? Don't make me laugh. Wade is not alone. I am sure you have heard me talk about the hypocrisy of those exposing upon the subject of "Good Governance" or I was for it until it was better for my re-election campaign to be against it. Yes, hypocrisy has many followers on this city council. But what do you expect from a bunch of politicians, honesty. Yeah right.

6:00 AM | Add a comment | Permalink | Blog it | City of Troy